Rev. Mitchell began his ministry at First Presbyterian Pendleton in July 2019 after serving a congregation in Maryville, Missouri for 10 years. Pastor Jonathan and his wife, Jana, grew up in Walla Walla and are pleased to return to the Pacific Northwest. Pastor Jonathan earned his bachelor's degree from Seattle Pacific University and worked as a teacher and for the housing authority in Washington before called to be a pastor. He attended Princeton Theological Seminary and his first pastoral calls were in Idaho.

First Presbyterian Church of Pendleton has warmly welcomed us, and we look forward to walking into the future with this community of faith. --Pastor Jonathan
